

PROJECT SHIKSHA

EMPOWERING LEARNING FOR CHILDREN THROUGH COMMUNITY LEARNING CENTERS

WHO WE ARE?

Pagaria Welfare Foundation (PWF) is a registered non-profit under Section 8, with 12A, 80G, and CSR-1 approvals. Since 2019, PWF has been working across 10 states of India, focusing on Education, Health, and Women Empowerment to uplift marginalized rural and semi-urban communities.

WHAT IS PROJECT SHIKSHA?

A transformative education initiative bringing holistic learning to rural and tribal India through Community Learning Centers (CLCs).

- Why Community Learning Centers?
- Lack of quality education in remote areas.
- Absence of digital and play-based learning.
- Limited access to extracurriculars and exposure.
- Social and digital divide.

OUR SOLUTION

- Integrated centers with:
- Books, toys, charts, and learning kits.
- Life skills and personality development.
- Digital and computer-based learning.
- Local educators and contextual curriculum.

KEY OBJECTIVES

- Bridge learning gaps for underserved children.
- Promote livelihood-linked skills and self-sufficiency.
- Create inclusive spaces for girls, disabled, and minorities.
